Profile

I'm a passionate and determined web developer who is transitioning to a career in tech. I am currently focused on Front End but learning Back End with Node.js as well.

Projects

React Calculator

- Built a small calculator using React.js.
- Really helped me to learn more about React Hooks and the asynchronous nature of state.

My Portfolio

- Mainly where I practice new ways to style and design using CSS.
- Implemented Styled Components, a CSS-In-JS library for cleaner syntax.
- Learned how to implement forms using Netlify

Danny Boy Game

- Small game made using jQuery and vanilla JS
- Used DOM manipulation to create gameplay.
- Had some trouble with the timer but solved it once I learned about promises.
